

OTHER ASPECTS WHICH THE COACH MAY ADDRESS DURING A COACHING SESSION

- positional play
- creating space off the ball
- creating space after the player has kicked the ball
- ball control
- body position when receiving the ball
- moving the body behind the line of the ball
- using the furthest foot to control the ball
- using the body to keep the ball
- executing a quick second touch for better position or for deception
- good kicking execution
- passing to the correct side of a team mate
- tackling
- throw-ins
- laws of the game

IT IS RECOMMENDED TO LIMIT THE THEME OF A SESSION TO ONLY ONE OR TWO TOPICS.